

Number Two Ashingdon Cottages is a little house overlooking the picturesque village green at St Helens, in the eastern corner of the Isle of Wight.

Built around 1900, the cottage has been tastefully decorated and furnished to a very high standard, combining traditional charm with modern convenience. Its two comfortable bedrooms have lovely outlooks: one overlooking the green, the other enjoying far-reaching views across Brading marshes to Culver Down.

The lounge, with its woodburning stove, provides a cosy refuge in the cooler months to watch TV, read a book or play boardgames and on summer evenings is often bathed in the golden glow of the setting sun. The pretty rear garden is an ideal place to sit and unwind after a long day's sightseeing, with a barbecue, perhaps, or just a glass of your favourite tittle.

The cottage offers:

- Two comfortable bedrooms – one double, one that can be arranged as either a double or a twin room, to suit your requirements. Both with lovely views.
- Cosy lounge with two comfy sofas, woodburner, TV, DVD player and radio/CD player.
- Modern fitted kitchen with electric oven and hob, dishwasher, microwave, fridge with freezer compartment. Breakfast bar. Separate lobby with washer/dryer.
- Adjoining dining area with dining table and four chairs.
- Patio doors from kitchen open onto enclosed rear garden with decked area.
- Pretty refurbished bathroom with bath and shower over.

St Helens makes an ideal holiday destination – whatever your interests.

At its heart is that rare, but quintessentially English feature, the village green (reputedly the largest in England). The hub of the village, it provides the setting for activities as diverse as carnivals, cricket, football and fairs.

Dotted around the green and close by the cottage, are two shops, two restaurants and the village pub. There are more restaurants and an excellent selection of independent shops at nearby Bembridge.

St Helens, on the edge of Bembridge Harbour, provides an ideal base for sailing holidays and the cottage is within easy walking distance of the yacht clubs at Brading Haven and Bembridge

The beach at St Helens is just 15 minutes' walk away and provides a child-friendly environment for rockpooling and swimming (in the summer there is also a licensed beach cafe to keep the adults happy).

St Helens provides an excellent base for walking holidays all year round: stroll along the causeway to the Duver, then follow the coastal path past secluded bays to the pretty yachting village of Seaview. Or cut along the disused railway line to the RSPB reserve at Brading marshes and up onto the downs at Culver to enjoy the varied birdlife and beautiful panoramic views.

For those wanting to explore by car the Isle of Wight has much to offer: from wonderful beaches to historic houses like Osborne House and Carisbrooke Castle; from theme parks to farms and vineyards selling local produce.
